

CURRICULUM VITAE

Personal Data

Name: Monique Barenboim Salles Vanni

Birth date: 4.10.1977

Nationality: Brazilian and Italian

Address: Rua José Maria Lisboa, 1003, apto. 194

Mob.: +5511 963123434

Email: moniquevanni@gmail.com

Profile

- A third year PHD candidate at the London School of Economics, specializing in development /marketing of forest resources, livelihoods, conservation and trade.
- An IEMA certified environmental consultant initially specialized in the International Corporate field, now with significant experience in Environment and Development, specifically forestry, climate change, agriculture and trade,
- A seasoned international traveller, comfortable in diverse scenarios, especially in the Developing World, able to relate to people of different backgrounds and produce results under challenging conditions,
- An experienced researcher and writer, with solid academic credentials and research skills, accustomed to writing with equal ease in four different languages, and to communicate in six.
- A passionate environmental advocate, with a history of engagement and volunteering from her early teens, looking for professional opportunities in Environment and Development, as a legal specialist, researcher or project manager.

Professional Experience

2012-2013: Policy Adviser, Green Party of England and Wales, responsible for all policy development, and communication thereof, including election manifestos and new policies for Climate Change , supervising a team of three and liaising with local parties and elected representatives across Europe

2011-2012: Account manager at Nearly Normal Creative Studio, responsible for creating briefs and handling client accounts, as well as ensuring the production and delivery of all creative content leaving the agency.

2008-2011: Independent consultant, providing project management services and research to international environmental organizations, particularly as regards Forest and Climate Change.

2006-7: Kubak, Svoboda, Kirchweger & Payer, provided an interface between Austrian companies in the environmental field and Brazil, with the purpose of setting up and managing environmental projects involving biodiesel and carbon credits for landfills and waste management. 2002-2004:

2001 -2004 Founder and manager of Reizea Alimentos Ltda., an organic foods business located in Sao Paulo, Brazil, aimed at supporting small-scale, sustainable agriculture ventures.

2000 - 2001: junior member of Levy & Salomao Advogados, in the Antitrust Department: in charge of the contentious antitrust department, responsible for all notifications of acts of market concentration, and following of the resulting procedures

1998: Banque Nationale de Paris, legal consultant, legal and market research for new products, as well as development of inner strategies for implementation.

1996-1997: trainee of Pinheiro Neto Advogados, corporate law with a focus in mergers and acquisitions.

1995: internship in Levy & Salomao Advogados: intern of the contentious tax department.

Education

2010-2014: PHD candidate at the London School of Economics, Social Policy department, studying the development and marketing of global extractivist value chains and their impact on local livelihoods and conservation

2007- 2008: MA in Environment, Politics and Globalization at King's College, with a focus on environmental policy and sociology, and international development.

1995-2001: Universidade de Sao Paulo, bachelor of Law with a focus in Corporate Law

2000-2002: Studied fine art at the FAAP University in São Paulo

Languages

- Fluent (native level) in English, French, Spanish and Portuguese. Intermediate level in German and Italian.

Certifications

IEMA Associate Certification in Environmental Management

Member of the Brazilian Bar Association